

MEMBERSHIP in NYS TESOL

New York State Teachers of English to Speakers of Other Languages

NYS TESOL Members:

- Network with TESOL professionals in New York state and across the US and globe
- Learn and grow continuously in their practice
- Generate and share research
- Engage in seminars and presentations from top educators and leaders in the field.
- Experiment with innovative technology to use with ELLs/MLLs
- Feel energized, inspired and engaged in a community of peers
- Develop leadership capacity in themselves and their communities
- Shape policy and practice that impacts ENL programs
- Advance the academic, economic, social, emotional and linguistic growth of English learners

Only Members:

- receive weekly memos with all local updates, events, and advocacy issues relevant to New York TESOL professionals
- are eligible for awards, grants, and student contests
- may request CTLE credit
- can participate in live-streaming conference presentations
- receive discounts for conferences and events
- receive our newsletter and journal

Join Today!

Advocate. Advance. Enrich.

NYS TESOL is a community of practice for TESOL professionals throughout New York state. Our goals are to advance the profession of teaching English as an additional language by facilitating professional development for all of our members and to advocate for equitable policies and practices for multilingual learners and communities.